Comiskey Field, Chicago, Oct. 13.—In one of the stormiest games ever played in a world's series campaign, the Chicago White Sox came from behind today when defeat stared them in the face, and beat the New York Giants by a score of 8 to 5. The champions of the National league got away to a flying start and hammered Red Russell out of the box, and then falling upon Cicotte, who relieved him. The White Sox used four pitchers during the game.

Saltee, the Giants' hurler, held the White Sox well in hand until the sixth inning, and from there on they batted him to all parts of the field. Both teams fielded wretchedly at times.

Chicago.—Weaver up. Fletcher got Weaver's smash and threw him out. Schalk up. Fletcher also threw out Schalk. Cicotte up. The crowd cheered Cicotte who went to first on four pitched balls. J. Collins up. Saltee worked a crossfire ball all through the inning. J. Collins fouled out to Hardin. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning.

New York.—Zimmerman up. Zimmerman tipped his cap when the crowd jeered him. Zimmerman got a Texas leaguer into right center. Felsch lost the ball in the sun. Fletcher up. Fletcher lined to McMullin, who doubled Zimmerman with a quick throw to Gandil. Robertson up, who knocked a single off Cicotte's glove. Holke up and struck out. The crowd gave Robertson a big laugh as he ran to second and then dashed to third, thinking Schalk had made a wild throw into centerfield. No runs, two hits, one error.

Chicago.—McMullin up, who flied out to Robertson. Eddie Collins up, who walked to first. Jackson up. Robertson made an easy catch of Jackson's fly. Felsch up. Collins scored on Felsch's long drive to the leftfield bleachers for two bases. Gandil up. Gandil flied to Kauff. One run, one hit, no errors.

Fourth Inning.

New York.—Rariden up, who singled to rightfield, his second blow. Saltee up. Saltee sacrificed to Gandil, unassisted. Burns up. Rariden scored on Burns' single to right, and when John Collins fumbled the ball Burns made a bad tumble of Herzog's grounder. Burns going to third. Kauff up. Burns scored when tossed wildly past Cicotte at the plate. Herzog went to third on the play. Zimmerman p. Zimmerman hit into a double play. McMullin to E. Collins to Gandil. Two runs, two hits, three errors.

Chicago.—Weaver up. Zimmerman took Weaver's hopper and threw him out. Schalk up. Schalk was put out by Gandil, unassisted. Cicotte up. Cicotte was out on a fly to leftfield. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning.

New York.—Fletcher up. Jackson took Fletcher's hard drive. Robertson up. Robertson smashed a hard single to rightfield, his third hit of the game. Holke up. Holke sent a high fly to Weaver and the crowd cheered him as he caught the ball. Rariden up. Robertson stole second. Rariden walked, being purposely passed. Saltee up, who was a strike-out victim. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Chicago.—John Collins up. Collins struck out, biting at a slow ball for the third strike that was a foot away from his bat. McMullin up. Kauff took McMullin's fly after a long run. Eddie Collins up, who burned a single into leftfield. Jackson up. Jackson bounced a single off Saltee's leg. Collins going to second. Felsch up. Saltee threw out Felsch at first. GERMANY OF ART LOST IN BRUTAL MACHINE OF WAR

Bishop Cooke of Helena Arraigns Teutonic Kultur as Lust for Blood and Power

YANKEE DOODLE WILL GO IT ALONE IF NECESSARY

Dickinson, N. D., Oct. 13.—"Pride is hated, power magnified, terror instilled and booty secured in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 were the beginning of the present struggle in Europe," said Bishop Cooke of Montana today in addressing the North Dakota Methodist Episcopal church on the "World's War."

"The Germany of music, art and poets faded into militarism. Memories of Goethe, Kant, Beethoven and Mozart were lost in Bismarck's brutal, cold blooded, savage, intensive industrial and military machine for world mastery."

Germany's "Kultur," "Germany's materialistic 'kultur' demanded a world under its feet. Jealousy of England's sea power, colonies, markets and growth demanded more ships, bigger armies, and closer organization, with German supremacy the Kaiser's dream. This kultur of confidence ignored treaties and would bleed France, rape Belgium, steal Serbia and butcher the Armenians, and on knees of blasphemous prayer claim God's co-operation. Germany's lust was 250 million subjects as her domains."

"The name of Germany has been made an execration. All morals have been subverted to the needs of state and power; all individualism lost in avariciousness and greed. Her doom is written on the walls of democracy. She is now whipped, and like a beaten cur will crave the world's pity."

Will Go It Alone.

"President Wilson's name will go down in history as a patient, wise, national preserver of the best in diplomacy, statecraft and religion and will be coupled with that of Washington," (Continued on Page Six.)

Loan Your Money to Uncle Sam

The United States is the richest, strongest country in the world, and it is not asking anybody, not even its own citizens, to give it money. It wants to BORROW your money. It will pay it back with good interest.

There does not exist in the entire world a security so safe as United States government bonds.

For thirty-eight years the United States has never issued a bond at a higher interest rate than 4 per cent. The last issue above 4 per cent was in 1879.

Four per cent bonds of the government in ordinary times have sold at 114 to 115.

A $1,000 bond of the United States government could be sold through these thirty-eight years at anywhere from $1,140 to $1,190.

That's the kind of a country the United States is.

There is only one thing in the world better than actual gold or gold certificates, and that is the United States government bond.

If you have the gold or the paper money hidden away, it brings you in nothing.

If you have 4 per cent bonds running twenty-five years, the interest you will get in that time will be equal to the full amount of the bonds.

And you still have the bonds that the government will pay off at full face value in gold.

No state, city, county or even the government itself can tax you on these bonds unless you own more than $5,000 worth.

But if you own bonds, and you need money, you do not have to wait twenty-five years. Any bank will buy them from you or loan on them virtually to the full amount. The interest periodically becomes due, and any bank, or the postmaster in any town will pay them in cash.

The second liberty loan of 1917 is the greatest investment opportunity ever put before the people.

Even if a man looks at it merely as a business proposition, it is the best thing in the world today. But when you consider that by loaning your money to the government at this time you are doing a service of loyalty and putting yourself on record as a patriot, it offers to every man, woman or child who wants to enroll as a patriot the opportunity of a lifetime.

SLOPE PATRIOTS WILL GREET NYE AT AUDITORIUM

100 Per Cent Americanism to Be Featured in Great Patriotic Rally Tonight

CAMP FIRE GIRLS TO ASSIST AS USHERS

Co-Operation of All Bismarck Loyalists Assured to Make Meeting Successful

Patriots of the Missouri Slope will unite with Bismarck loyalists this evening in a demonstration of 100 per cent Americanism at the Auditorium, where a rousing rally will be addressed by former Congressman Frank M. Nye of Minnesota, a brother of the late "Bill" Nye, most typical of American humorists, and himself one of the northwest's most brilliant orators.

Pure, undiluted, unconditional, unswerving Americanism will be the theme around which Congressman Nye will build his address, this evening. He comes to North Dakota convinced by his past performances that the rank and file of its citizens are as loyal Americans as can be found on the continent; he comes to bring a pledge of faith and confidence from our sister state to the east and to tell of some of the things which Uncle Sam is doing to assure a victory for world-wide democracy in the great, final struggle with autocracy.

Program for Evening.

The meeting at the Auditorium will be preceded by a concert from the Bismarck Elks' band. H. P. Goddard, president of the Bismarck Commercial club will preside. The program will open with the community singing of "America," led by the Bismarck mixed quartet. President Goddard will introduce the speaker of the evening, and Mr. Nye's address will immediately follow.

Campfire Girls to Usher.

The volunteer service of Campfire girls as ushers will be a novel feature of the Auditorium meeting. Misses Josephine Welch, Mildred Bannham, Imogene McLean, Lavine Register, Eunice Olson and Alice Webb have enlisted for this duty, and they will appear in the regulation garb of their organization, which closely corresponds with the Boy Scouts.

Coming from All Points.

American loyalists from all parts of the Slope have signified their intention of attending this evening's meeting, which will be the only one in this district addressed by Congressman Nye. Scores of automobile parties are expected from both sides of the river. The roads are good, the weather pleasant, and the out-of-town representation will be unusually large. That Bismarck will be out in force goes without saying. Bismarck has never been found wanting when patriotism was in question.

BRING IN CREW.

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 13.—Twenty-six members of the crew of the steamer New Orleans, wrecked off the Virginia coast, in a heavy blow Wednesday, were brought here today by a vessel which picked them up just after their ship went down. Harry L. Kohlmann, the first officer, a native of Germany, was drowned.

DRAFTED MEN TO FILL RANKS OF STATE GUARD

Three Thousand Men to Be Transferred From Camp Dodge Cantonment

ORDERS TO AFFECT 78,400 OF NATIONAL ARMY

Effect Will Be to Mobilize at Camp Gordon 28,000 Men for New Division

Washington, Oct. 13.—The war department made public today the details of the orders providing for the transfer of 78,400 men from national army cantonments to the various national guard divisions to fill them to war strength. State quotas in this process will be determined upon congressional representation, and so far as practical the drafted men from states will be assigned to national guard units from the same states.

The divisions of the national guard forces showing the greatest deficiency in men are the 30th, 10,000; the 31st, 12,000; 32nd 9,000; 33rd, 6,400; 34th, 6,000; 40th, 9,000.

North Dakota Short.

The orders in part authorized the commander of the 32nd division to call upon Camp Custer for 3,000 men from Michigan and Wisconsin; 33rd division to call upon Camp Grant for 3,400 men from Illinois; and on Camp Dodge for 1,000 men from Illinois; 34th division, to call upon Camp Dodge for 2,000 men from Iowa, Minnesota, and North Dakota, and upon Camp Funston for 2,000 men from Nebraska and South Dakota, and the 36th division to call upon Camp Funston for 2,000 men from Missouri, and Kansas.

Commanders of the national guard divisions are directed to state the number of men required to inform the commanders of national cantonments, on whom the call is made of the number of men of special qualifications needed and the dates the levies can be received and accommodated at the guard camps.

Make Transfers.

Paralleling the orders, instructions have been sent to the divisional commanders of the national army to furnish the men as required, and also to make certain transfers between the national army cantonments.

Camp Pike; after all remaining white men have been transferred to Camp Jackson, to receive 3,000 whites from Camp Custer, 2,000 from Camp Grant, 2,000 from Camp Taylor, 3,000 from Camp Sherman, 8,000 from Camp Dodge, 3,000 from Camp Funston, and 4,000 from Camp Travis.

The effect of the transfers will be to mobilize at Camp Gordon 28,000 men from eastern states to form the new division there, and at Camp Pike to assemble 27,000 from the middle western territory to reform that division.

MILLION LOSS TO GRAIN IN BROOKLYN FIRE

New York, Oct. 13.—Grain intended for export, valued at a million dollars, is apparently a total loss. Fire raged for many hours in the Brooklyn elevators. The fire was one of the worst in history on the waterfront.

FOOD DIRECTOR OF ILLINOIS CHARGES CROP IS HOARDED

Chicago, Oct. 13.—The farmer immune to the antihoarding law, is hoarding his potatoes, according to Harry A. Wheeler, food director of Illinois.

Mr. Wheeler issued a warning that as the crop was the greatest on record, not mentioning the unrecorded crops of tens of thousands of gardeners, the farmers are riding to a fall. He said that when they began to unload, the hoarded supplies would come out at once, and prices would drop to zero. He suggested that the farmer would benefit himself by allowing the movement to follow its normal course.

Organization to Carry Security Sale to Success Ready to Begin Canvass

Washington, Oct. 13.—Persons of all races, classes and conditions are supporting the sale of the liberty loan bonds, reports from many parts of the country show. "If the fatherland needs a spanking, I am ready to help administer it, even though I do it with tearful eyes," wrote the Rev. Christian Behn, a German minister of New Ulm, Minn., the scene of recent distasteful meetings. Greeks and Italians are among the most enthusiastic buyers in Chicago. Many of them originally bought bonds under the impression that they were contributing the money to the government with no chance of return.

Everything is in readiness for the big Liberty Loan drive which opens over the Slope, Monday. Committees in the various counties have been named and by Monday the machinery will be speeded up to make one of the most thorough campaigns in the history of this section.

The nation is thoroughly aroused over necessity of oversubscribing this fund by several billions, so that the Central Powers can realize that the nation's heart is in the struggle.

Following the big patriotic rally at the Auditorium this evening, the members of the city and county teams will meet at the McKenzie hotel to put the finishing touches on the plans for the canvass that starts bright and early Monday morning.

It is hoped to clean up Eurligh county's quota this week.

J. L. Bell, vice-president of the First National bank, heads this district comprising McLean, Emmons, Logan, Kidder and Burleigh. The following chairmen for these counties are: McLean—August Johnson; Emmons, G. A. Lenhart; Hazelton; Logan, F. B. Heath; Napoleon.

WESTERN MILLS HARD HIT BY NEW RULING

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 13.—John Pillsbury, head of one of the largest local flour mill companies, said today that Minneapolis flour mills would withdraw their salesmen from the road and decline to book further orders until those on hand had been filled, because of yesterday's decision by the milling division of the food administration to curtail operation to 60 per cent of capacity. The new order, intended to relieve the grain shortage at eastern mills, will become effective tomorrow.

"The ruling actually cuts our operations more than would appear on the surface," said Mr. Pillsbury, "because at this time of the year we usually operate at full capacity to make up for slack."

Wheat receipts here today were 835 cars, the largest in a single day, since the government took charge of operations.

MANY INJURED WHEN TRAIN HITS TROLLEY

Duel, Minn., Oct. 13.—A score of passengers on a street car running from Hibbing to Virginia, Minn., were cut by flying glass and bruised by the crash here last night when the car tipped on its side, while crossing a "Y" at high speed. Many of the passengers were bound for a dance, being held at the Duell village hall, given for the purpose of raising money to send to the Duell soldiers in camps.

The injured were taken to a hospital here. Car traffic between Hibbing and Virginia was held up all night, while a wrecking crew worked.

MICHAELIS IS DOOMED TO GO DECLARES PRESS

Copenhagen, Oct. 13.—The German reichstag, leaving behind it a latent crisis, which political observers believe will lead, sooner or later, to the retirement of Dr. Michaelis—the chancellor, without a following. Although other parties are less active in opposition to Dr. Michaelis than the socialists, not a voice has been raised against the Vorwaerts slogan "Michaelis must go."

Recent arrivals from Berlin report that current gossip there is that Michaelis can scarcely last a month. The chancellor's blunder in springing the disclosures of the alleged naval plot, against which according to the National Zeitung he was strongly advised and his failure to make headway against the reichstag majority appeared to have lost him, the conservative and pan-German support.

A Difference of Opinion

When Did the Real Mr. Prater Speak?

"Many people are anxious that the board of university and school lands should invest the school endowment funds in liberty bonds. At the recent meeting of the newly organized board, the matter was not discussed.

"The new land commissioner, W. J. Prater, is of the opinion that they will have no funds available for the purchase of liberty bonds when its present application for loans have been paid.

The shortage of the crop and the general need of capital in the state to secure food for stock has made the demands upon the endowment funds of the state greater than ever.

"The probabilities are that the deferred payments and interest will not come in as promptly as usual during the next year and that the applications for farm loans will be very much heavier and that the state will not be able to meet all the demands upon this fund."—Chairman F. E. Packard in the New Rockford State Center, Oct. 9, 1917.

"I am heartily in favor of investing any funds which might be available in the second Liberty bond issue," said Mr. Prater tonight. "The university and school land fund is low at this time, but it is hoped that there will be receipts sufficient to permit the board to purchase a block of the Liberty bonds.

"It is impossible for me to say at present just what the receipts of the department will be during the next few months. I can say, however, that the board is heavily obligated at the time to farm loans and for bond issues. If the board decides to invest in the bonds, and I believe it will, it will necessitate the postponement of some of these obligations for a short period.

"The war must be placed above all personal interests. The boys of our state have already gone to the front. They will need ammunition, food and clothing, and it is the duty of every man, woman and child to see that their needs are supplied so that this terrible war may be brought to a speedy and successful conclusion.

"If by the state investing in Liberty bonds this can be accomplished, I am in favor of buying bonds to the limit."—Commissioner W. J. Prater, in the Courier-News, Oct. 12, 1917.

PETROGRAD IS MENACED WHEN TROOPS LAND

Germans Embarking Along Gulf of Riga and in Direct Line of Slav Capital

SEASON MAY PREVENT ANY BIG OFFENSIVE

Latest Maneuver, However, Is Full of Big Possibilities on That Front

FIGHTING LANDING PARTY.

Petrograd, Oct. 13.—The Germans are working stubbornly to clear the entrance to the gulf of Riga, near Courland, says today's official statements. The activities of the enemies in landing forces were rendered difficult by moles constructed by the Russians, and by bad visibility. The garrison of Oesel island is fighting German forces which landed.

The Germans landed a detachment yesterday on the coast of the Gulf of Tagalah, on the north of Oesel island, and near the village of Sero on the southern part of Dago island, the war office announces. The Russian coast batteries were silenced by German dreadnaughts.

The statement says all measures have been taken against the invaders.

By Associated Press.

While the British offensive has come to a momentary pause, with the gains made yesterday everywhere held, a situation latent with big possibilities has developed on the Russian front.

The landing of German troops on the islands of Oesel and Dago at the mouth of the Gulf of Riga is reported today from Petrograd. From the shore's edge at Hapsal, opposite Dago island, a railway line runs direct to Revel, the Russian naval base on the Gulf of Finland, and thence on to Petrograd.

Road to Petrograd.

The islands in question have themselves been bases of no little importance to the Russians, especially for airplane activities. Their seizure would undoubtedly hamper Russian naval scouting works, effectively close the Gulf of Riga to Russian use, and apparently offer an excellent starting point for a land expedition for Petrograd if one should be contemplated by the German command.

May Preclude Campaign.

The lateness of the season has seemed to preclude any attempt by the Teutons to make a drive toward Petrograd this year. It has been pointed out, however, that such a move could probably be carried out with comparative ease at present, with the Russian armies in their admittedly disorganized state, whereas next spring there is government promise of a Russian military reorganization after a winter of planning work on new lines.

Inlanders the heavy rain which stopped Field Marshal Haig's drive yesterday before all his objectives were obtained, were continued today, increasing the depth of the sticky mud through which the British have struggled in their advances. The mud evidently was hampering the Germans equally, for they failed to deliver a counter attack during the night. The German crown prince made several attacks last night on French positions on the Aisne front, but all the assaults were repulsed.

LAND TROOPS.

London, Oct. 13.—The Germans have landed troops on the islands of Oesel and Dago in the Gulf of Riga, according to a Reuter's dispatch from Petrograd.

Oesel and Dago islands are at the entrance of the Gulf of Riga, and provide easy access to the mainland over small intermediate islands. Dago island is about 200 miles from Petrograd. Its position derives additional importance from the fact that it is almost at the mouth of the Gulf of Finland, at the head of which is Kronstadt, which defends Petrograd.

Threatens Petrograd. Oesel island is nearly 100 miles north of Riga, which the Germans captured recently. The landing of German troops in the province of Esthonia, which is near the islands, would threaten the outflanking of the Russian line, and probably compel a retreat on a wide section of the front, if indeed it did not open the way to Petrograd itself.

A railway line follows the coast all the way from Hapsal, opposite Dago island, to Petrograd. Oesel island, the larger of the two, is 45 miles long and has an area of 1,010 and a population of about 60,000. It has a difficult coast line in the form of limestone cliffs.

GOING ON CASH BASIS NOVEMBER 1

Owing to the steady advance in all lines of groceries and meats and the exorbitant advance in many articles we wish to do our part toward helping our customers save, and buy their goods as cheaply as possible. In order to do this we must ask our customers to assist us, by paying cash for their goods, thus enabling us to sell them at quite a per cent cheaper than we are able to under the credit system.

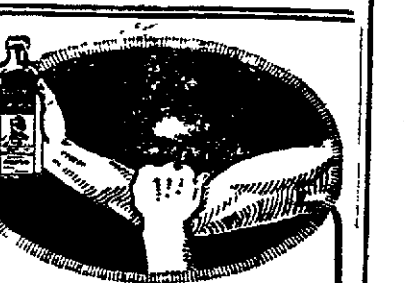

There is not a merchant in the city but can show large credit on his ledger that will never be collected, and which if he had not made an extra profit on his good customers would have driven him into bankruptcy long ago, thus the customer that is able to pay the cash for his goods by using the much abused credit system, voluntarily help pay for the other fellow's living that probably leaves town between two days.

We propose to change our system of doing business on Nov. 1st from an extensive credit system to a strictly cash system and giving our customers the benefit of a very material reduction in prices. We don't want to lose a customer by this change and feel sure that the party that has been accustomed to owe a grocery bill of from $25 to $35 at the end of each month will draw a long breath of thanksgiving that he has lived through the month without owing a cent, and a balance in his pocket which he had saved on his cash transaction.

In order to make our reduction as large as possible we have figured it on the basis of cash and carry—however we shall still retain our delivery system and shall deliver all orders amounting to one dollar or over, and on all orders of less than one dollar we shall charge 5 cents for delivery. We do this to help pay the sustenance of the delivery that ultimately it will educate the trade to bunch their orders and make one order a day instead of the way it runs at present of ordering four and five times a day.

By actual and accurate accounting it costs to make a delivery between 5 and 6 cents and we have gone out and bought an article that cost us three cents and delivered it to the residence of our customer charging it at the same price that we paid for it and carrying the article through the month, thus paying from two to three cents for delivering the goods.

We don't blame our customers for giving these orders, it is the merchant's own fault for educating their customers to such a system. How often have we insisted on sending small packages to our customers when they were going directly home empty.

State Loses Loyal Servant in Death Of Joseph Empting

Deceased Had Served Fifteen Years in Charge of Track-work on Capitol Line

The capitol is in sorrow today over news of the death of W. J. ("Joe") Empting, one of the oldest and most faithful of state house employees, who passed away at his home, 318 Mandan avenue, at 2:45 this morning. Mr. Empting was forced to give up his duties as foreman on the capitol street railway last May, when he underwent several operations which prolonged his life, but did not cure his trouble, and the end was not unexpected.

Joe Empting's friends throughout North Dakota number hundreds. For 15 years he was employed as caretaker of the capitol grounds and in charge of the road work on the street car line. In that capacity he met and won the esteem of the administrations with whom he had to deal in all of these years, and he numbered among his acquaintances all of the men who have been prominent in state affairs during this time. His was an important task, and it was always well done. To everyone who knew him the name of Joe Empting stood for efficiency and integrity, and in his passing the state house feels that it has lost one of its best servants.

Born in Michigan.

W. J. Empting was born in Michigan on March 7, 1858. Forty years ago he entered the employ of the Northern Pacific as a section foreman, in which capacity he came to Bismarck in 1887. He remained with the railway company, serving here and at Apple Creek, until 1912, when he accepted service with the state. He married in Minnesota, shortly before coming to Bismarck, Miss Emma Stebbins, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Stebbins of this city, and who survives with the following children: W. N. Empting, Marmarth, Mrs. A. E. Robideau, Streeter, Harry Empting, Mason City, Ia. J. E. Empting of this city and Miss Loretta Empting of Bismarck, together with a sister and five brothers of the deceased.

BENNETT DISCHARGED AND REARRESTED WHEN WITNESS DISAPPEARS

"Jack" Bennett, U. S. A., brought here from San Antonio, Tex., to answer to a white slavery charge, will be a second time arraigned in Judge Blackreid's court Monday afternoon. On the first hearing this week Bennett was discharged and the case against him dismissed, after State's Attorney McCurdy had openly charged the defense with spiriting away the state's most material witness, a woman alleged to have resided in the Bennett domicile and who is said to have filed the first complaint against Bennett. Before Bennett could leave the court room he was rearrested on the same charge, and another hearing set for Monday.

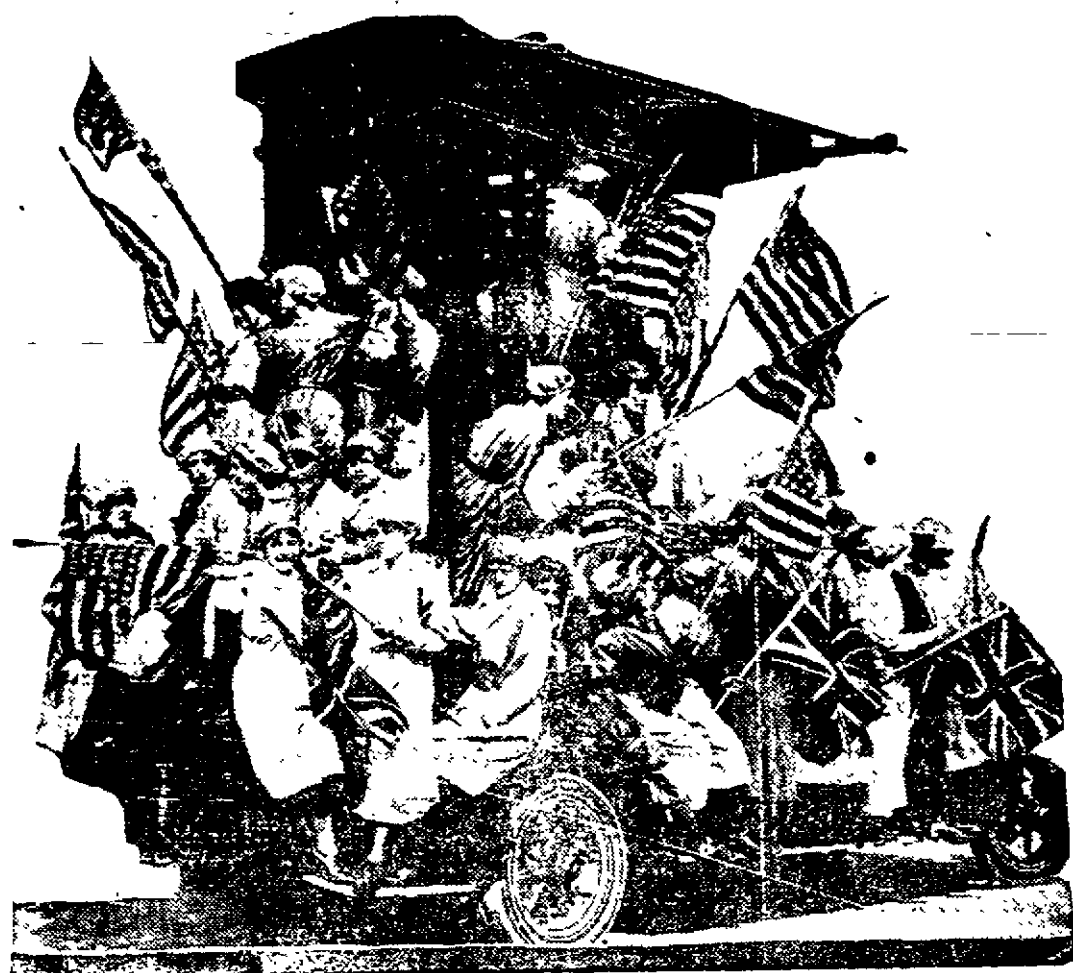

TRAVELERS TO MEET EARLY AND GO LATER TO PATRIOTIC RALLY

Grand Councillor John L. George especially urges every member to be present tonight, as two matters of supreme importance to the travelers are to come up.

CHICAGO TAKES FIFTH GAME FROM GIANTS

York and Chicago swung into action today in the fifth engagement of the 1917 world's series campaign. Thirty thousand spectators saw the game. The two clubs stand even in games won, two victories each, and two more captured games by either team will determine the baseball champions of the world.

Biting Wind.
Chilling weather with a biting wind greeted the teams as they appeared on the field, which was fairly fast, though the far reaches of the field were soggy and slow. The sun was bright, however, which helped to dry the damp turf.

The Giants unlimbered their bats against the pitching of George Smith, a right hander. While the Giants were at batting practice the Sox players went to the clubhouse and had a conference with Manager Rowland.

Giants Win Toss.
Garry Herrman made one toss of a half dollar. Comiskey of the White Sox called "Heads." The coin fell tails.

The Giants showed a lot of vim in their fielding practice. The Sox drew continued applause as they took their practice in the field. Red Russell warmed up for the White Sox, while Sallee and Perritt tried out their arms for the Giants. While the umpires were getting the batting orders from the rival managers the band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

Kauff Gets Ovation.

Mingled cheers and jeers greeted the Giants as they came upon the field. Felsch looked over the bat with which Kauff drove out two home runs on Thursday, and Benny let him try it in batting practice. Felsch promptly spun one of Ben's offerings to the centerfield fence. The Giants' trainer covered the visitors' bench with a big blanket so that the players, when awaiting their turn at bat, could ward off the chill beneath the folds.

Robertson going to second on the play. Sallee up. O'Laughlin cautioned the Sox bench for coaching. Sallee beat up the air and sat down. Burns up and struck out. One run, two hits, one error.

ATTEND THE RALLY.

Former Congressman Nye should be greeted by a packed house of patriots eager to hear the war discussed by a man whose patriotism is unquestioned and whose information has been gained through years of service in public office.

Attend the patriotic rally tonight. It will reveal to you how you can keep the home fires burning as well as serve the boys who have gone to prepare for the struggle in France.

FISH OR CUT BAIT.

J. L. Bell, chairman of this district for the sale of liberty bonds, has sent a written request to the land commissioner asking that the state invest $200,000 of the school fund in these securities.

Of course this "tickler" should not have been necessary. The state administration, if its sponsors are alert at all to the great necessities of this crisis, should have come forward immediately unsolicited and placed such funds as are or will be available.

There are many banks who will assist the state on the first payment until the actual cash is in the treasury. There are no real obstacles to the investment, except probably that the board may not want to reverse its previous action in refusing to take any of the first issue of the liberty bonds.

The school funds constitute a pure gift from Uncle Sam. All that the local committee asks for the federal government is a loan of $200,000 at four per cent so that some of the dollars can strengthen the arms of the North Dakota boys as they go forth to battle for the preservation of this nation.

It is a small request and hardly debatable among patriots. Drafted men at Camp Grant, Illinois, subscribed more than $222,850 in liberty bonds. There should be no quibbling over the matter. The state's duty is plain.

W. J. Prater, land commissioner, one minute declares there will be no money available and the next moment intimates that if so and so happens there may be a few dollars to assist our boys who have left home, willingly and smilingly to fight our battles.

The administration must fish or cut bait. Citizens of this state have had their patience sorely tried the last two or three weeks and are in no mood to put up with fresh insults that impugn their attitude toward this war in states where there is no knowledge or understanding of local conditions.

Frazier has been silent too long. Whether his master, Mr. Townley, has given his consent to the loan The Tribune knows not.

But the command comes today thundering from a great majority of North Dakota's 750,000 men, women and children to stand back of the boys at the front in this matter and do it now without an IF or a BUT.

The Tribune has had occasion to refer recently to the sick and tardy aspect of Governor Frazier's profession of loyalty in this crisis as though it were a reluctant confession to mitigate the error committed at St. Paul. This paper has no sympathy for his hesitancy in all matters affecting the great crisis, outside from all these considerations. The Tribune is a local newspaper in urging favorable action on the request for a $200,000 loan.

A North Dakota farmer made his eyes flash and his teeth were set. Not many months ago he was a Nonpartisan League man, but he refused to follow Townley in his latest tour into the realms of pacifism and the traitor vote.

This traitor farms in Oliver county. His ancestors were German but came to America while the colonies were under British rule. They fought in the Revolutionary war and their descendants offered their lives for the preservation of the Union in 1861.

Discussion drifted to the St. Paul League meeting and La Follette's address and in the conversation, this North Dakota farmer and former League member summed up the whole situation in this:

"La Follette is bidding for the traitor vote."

The feeling is spreading over the state that Mr. Townley has injected issues into the league foreign to the agrarian movement for which it was originally established.

Is he bidding for the support of the pacifist and pro-Germans of the north-west?

Like La Follette does he want to draw political spoils from the forces which seek to undermine the bulwarks of the Republic?

Has he sent out his organizers into pacifist territory to reap the harvest of dollars, while the spell of La Follette's performance at St. Paul still enshrouds the passive patriots and pacifists of the northwest?

The heading and precipitate efforts of administration leaders now to further anything that savors of patriotism and Americanism are amusing in the extreme when judged critically, coolly and dispassionately in the light of what transpired during the first four months of this nation's participation in the war.

It is no secret that the league leaders lined up solidly with the pacifists. This criticism does not extend to the thousands of loyal and honest farmers.

A great building right on the Place de l'Opera in the very heart of the liveliest section of Paris. In this building ample quarters where many men could get a clean bed, and enjoy smoking and lounging rooms.

But, best of all, there should be a big clean restaurant, something like the popular chain restaurants familiar in many American cities. In this place a specialty should be made of American dishes—corned beef hash, Boston baked beans, wheat and corn cakes with maple syrup, corn bread, hot biscuit—all the things especially dear to the American palate.

And right next door there should be an American candy store where the boys could purchase the kind of sweets they are used to and where they could imbibe endless ice cream sodas.

To finish off, Dr. Fitch would have the Lambs club of New York co-operate with the Red Cross, so some of the cleverest actors and comedy singers in the country could take turns at entertaining the boys.

A very good program. It is ambitious. It will cost some money. But the American Red Cross is ambitious and it has the money.

The soldiers in the trenches will not have much time to become homesick. But when they are on leave the longing for home will hit them right straight in their hungry hearts.

The Fitch plan would give them a bit of America, a bit of home in the very center of Paris. They would enjoy every minute of it. They would go back to the stern business at the front refreshed both in body and in spirit.

Chicago's mayor says men also should knit. Membership in the Home Knitting league, however, is not ground for exemption.

The high price of turkey is worrying the Thanksgiving gobbler, the one who "gobbles" the gobbler, but is making the days brighter for that great American bird.

With the world series out of the way Mr. Average Citizen can find time to store the lawn mower away in moth balls and sharpen the teeth of the snow shovel.

Von Freytag-Loringhoven, big German military expert, opines that the initiative must remain with the British. Gen. Haig thinks so, too. Von Hindenburg's initiative seems to have busted, anyhow.

The same man who teases his wife about bargain sale rushes and tea fights will stand outdoors half the night and pay real money to sit under a shed and watch a few homely men spend three hours in a vain effort to hit a leather pill.

"Bidding for the Traitor Vote"

La Follette is bidding for the traitor vote.

Does not that statement hit the nail squarely on the head and add a clinch to the case?

All these associations of farmers are without authority from the North Dakota farmer. Mr. Townley met his first serious defeat when he attempted to put over an agreement between the I. W. W.'s and the farmers. They emphatically and vehemently repudiated Townley's proposals to accept the terms of these men whose leaders are under indictment for treating with the enemy.

Now the Grange, Equity and many other farmers' societies repudiate any connection or responsibility for the St. Paul meeting.

Whenever the North Dakota farmer has had the opportunity he has registered his protest.

Can the same be said of Townley, Bowen et al.

Mr. Townley with all the astuteness of the trained and seasoned demagogue, seeks to wash his hands of the St. Paul blunder by saying:

"This is merely BIG BUSINESS fighting you farmers."

Is the old chestnut that runs through all his appeals.

But are the farmers going to let Townley's goat for this last mess?

No one in North Dakota, Minnesota or South Dakota is fighting the farmers when Townley and his band of pirates are denied a meeting place to breed discontent and opposition to the federal administration.

But immediately a loyal community in Minnesota serves notice on Mr. Townley that with the odium of the La Follette speech still clinging to him, it will have none of him or his.

He seeks to divert attention, confuse issues and dodge responsibilities by explaining that the opposition of these patriots is aimed at the farmers.

It is directed solely at Mr. Townley who has sadly mistaken the sentiments of the farmers he pretends to lead.

May the day soon come when the farmer members of this league repudiate a leadership which has been rendered worse than useless to them.

who compose the main strength of the League but to the paid agents who have had both open and secret communication with I. W. W.'s members of the Peace Council of America and the I. W. W.

All these associations of farmers are without authority from the North Dakota farmer. Mr. Townley met his first serious defeat when he attempted to put over an agreement between the I. W. W.'s and the farmers. They emphatically and vehemently repudiated Townley's proposals to accept the terms of these men whose leaders are under indictment for treating with the enemy.

Now the Grange, Equity and many other farmers' societies repudiate any connection or responsibility for the St. Paul meeting.

Whenever the North Dakota farmer has had the opportunity he has registered his protest.

Can the same be said of Townley, Bowen et al.

Mr. Townley with all the astuteness of the trained and seasoned demagogue, seeks to wash his hands of the St. Paul blunder by saying:

"This is merely BIG BUSINESS fighting you farmers."

Is the old chestnut that runs through all his appeals.

But are the farmers going to let Townley's goat for this last mess?

No one in North Dakota, Minnesota or South Dakota is fighting the farmers when Townley and his band of pirates are denied a meeting place to breed discontent and opposition to the federal administration.

But immediately a loyal community in Minnesota serves notice on Mr. Townley that with the odium of the La Follette speech still clinging to him, it will have none of him or his.

He seeks to divert attention, confuse issues and dodge responsibilities by explaining that the opposition of these patriots is aimed at the farmers.

It is directed solely at Mr. Townley who has sadly mistaken the sentiments of the farmers he pretends to lead.

May the day soon come when the farmer members of this league repudiate a leadership which has been rendered worse than useless to them.

little group of wilful men" of the United States senate for a speaker and present him as the star attraction if out of sympathy with La Folletteism?

The fact is that this Nonpartisan League stamped itself all over with disloyalty in inviting the wily Wisconsin agitator to appear under its auspices and giving him a place on its program. It is clearly culpable, and its president, the explaining and disavowing and disclaiming Mr. Townley, clearly the chief culprit and the most culpable.

The press of St. Paul and Minneapolis which faithfully and in detail set down the proceedings of the meeting at which the Wisconsin Potsdam League introduced himself anew as an enemy of his country is a unit in saying that the Nonpartisan League gave him sympathetic attention and applauded his sentiments to the echo. Townley made not the slightest protest or gave the remotest sign of disapproval. Previously, it should be stated, a set of resolutions upholding the war had been presented and perfunctorily passed.

In the face of a violent storm of national wrath which reaches the capital in a demand that the arch exponent of sedition and treason be expelled from his seat, this newest political party, the Nonpartisan League, which blind to the spirit of discontent, crying out that the government under which this republic lives is "unrepresentative" and "unresponsive," magnifying the people's ills, picturing the farmers as a downtrodden class and calling upon La Follette to bear witness, would now wash its hands of responsibility for its mischievous acts.

Like Works and Jordan in parting company with Herrs Lochner and Berger and the pro-German peace council when the riot call sounded, Townley cuts the acquaintance of La Follette and disclaims La Folletteism.

Possibly the Nonpartisan League has some useful mission to perform in the future. But not now, unless it elect to give its unequalled support to Uncle Sam upon a platform of uncompromising loyalty. Its activities of late have been singularly jarring and unhelpful. It not actually sedition and unpatriotic. It has forfeited the patriotic respect of the country, whatever may happen to be its status in states represented in the senate by the La Follettes and Gronnas.

This is not a time for partisanship, least of all a partisanship in the name of nonpartisanship that would thrive upon class antagonism and offer a forum to sedition and treason.—By Scott C. Bone in Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

ELSIE FERGUSON AT BISMARCK THEATRE.

At the Bismarck Theatre commencing Monday, Elsie Ferguson, the most beautiful artist of the American drama, makes her motion picture debut in "Barbery Sheep," for Arterart Pictures. One of the most prominent exponents of the true dramatic art, Miss Ferguson brings to the screen a rare personality and adds greatly to its potency as a high-class amusement. Miss Ferguson's career on the stage started at the bottom. Through characteristic persistence and hard work she has become one of the most popular actresses of the world. Her characterizations in such well known theatrical bits as "Shirley Kays," "Such a Little Queen," "Outcast," and "Margaret Schiller," won her particular prominence among the hearts of American theatregoers.

In "Barbery Sheep," adapted from Robert Hichens' most popular book since "The Garden of Allah," Miss Ferguson is given a vehicle that not only is particularly adapted to her capabilities, but one that offers her a most lavishly artistic background.

Under the direction of Maurice Tourneur, the well known French producer, some of the most elaborate sets ever staged for a photoplay are presented in novel display. The romantic story of Algeria, which tells of the infatuation of an English noblewoman for a dark-skinned army officer, as told on Saturday Evening Letter

By Justice J. E. Robinson

Next week on Friday we commence the hearing of sixteen appeals which we should dispose of during this month.

Now having nothing else to do I am considering the records on those sixteen cases. Today in one of them I wrote a tentative opinion and mailed a copy to the attorneys for each party, writing them in this manner:

"Gentlemen: It is my custom, as you may know, to look over the briefs and records of all cases set for hearing. The purpose is that when a case comes on for argument it may be able to handle it and be able to handle it something of it and be able to handle it. I have written a tentative decision, a copy of which I send to each of you. If you concur with me it may save you a trip to Bismarck. If you dissent, it will give you my views in advance and can do you no harm. At present I feel entirely clear that it is right."

As you may know when a party appeals to the supreme court from any decision against him, he causes the original records of the case and copies of the evidence to be certified and sent to the clerk of the supreme court. Then each party sends to the clerk type-written or printed briefs which present his side of the case. By direction of the court the clerk puts the several cases on the court calendar for argument on a day certain and notifies the attorneys. After argument the judges take each case under consideration and when they agree upon a decision (which they should do in two weeks) the clerk notifies the attorneys. Then the attorney who is not satisfied moves for a rehearing to get back at the judges and tell them what he thinks of them. That is a relief to his mind. It is like going into a sweating room. Of course the motion for a rehearing is commonly denied and that ends the case.

Last week two young lawyers appeared before the court on a motion to dismiss an appeal. The moving lawyer was a fluent speaker with plenty of books and a manifest purpose to enlighten the court. He claimed that in the specifications of error there was a fatal defect and that in such matters of procedure every lawyer should be held strictly to the rules of the game. He was quickly advised that our law practice is no longer a game and that we no longer dismiss appeals that are taken in good faith and so his motion was promptly denied. As every lawyer holds a certificate from the supreme court that he may safely be trusted to conduct the trial of suits and to appeal cases, it is the duty of the court to protect clients against the errors and mistakes of their lawyers. It is only when judges are unjust or incompetent that right and justice depends on the skill of lawyers. It is true that

OR POSSIBLY VEIRECK'S.

Governor Frazier had an opportunity to show his much advertised loyalty by putting a stop to La Follette's seditious speech at the St. Paul Nonpartisan League meeting recently. As chairman of the meeting he could have done so. Did he do it? The "Appeal to Reason" will please answer.—Sheridan Post.

NOT A FARMERS' MEETING.

President Townley of the Nonpartisan League "got in bad" by intimating that its September meeting in St. Paul was under the combined auspices of the national Grange, American Federation of Labor and Society of Equity. The national offices of all three of these organizations have officially informed us that the use of their names in connection therewith was wholly unauthorized. Mr. Townley declared that the purpose of the conference was to lower the high cost of living by inducing public opinion to insist upon lower prices for coal, fuel and metals. He stated that no unpatriotic sentiments could be allowed expression in this movement. The sentiment at this gathering, as among farmers everywhere, favors still larger taxes on war profits to pay for the war.—The Northwest Farmstead.

REPUUDIATED TOO LATE.

A. C. Townley, president of the newest political party, the Nonpartisan League, has disavowed sympathy with La Follette's seditious utterances at St. Paul and disclaimed responsibility therefor.

It is an empty disavowal and disclaimer.

With a country full of patriots, with patriots controlling both branches of congress overwhelmingly with loyal Americans occupying the executive chairs of virtually all the states of the union, why did the Nonpartisan League overlook these and turn to the

VELVET GOWN IS
FASHION'S CHOICE

By Betty Brown

New York -- Evening gowns show a decided preference for velvet as their basic material and this is no exception. This chiton velvet frock shows to good advantage the possibilities of that material, whose softness lends itself to graceful drapings while the bright rich texture makes a commendation almost a non-essential. In this gown the bodice is held in rather closely about the waist and two blunt points define somewhat the fullness over the hips.

BISMARCK WOMAN ENTERS
N. Y. LITERARY FIELD

Mrs. Edith Waeman Hughes of this city, in the September issue of the Vogue has written a descriptive article on the success of Joseph Riter's roof garden, which attracted considerable attention of Gotham folk last summer, because of the wonderful results in the raising of flowers and vegetables.

The article describes realistically the various nooks and corners and is illustrated by pictorial features. Mrs. Hughes has inserted many clever verses descriptive of the subject matter. The article follows: "Up in the eighties in New York, in that maze of Park avenue apartment houses where the sky line is a study in water tanks and chimneys, Mrs. Joseph Riter has been trying an interesting and novel experiment. On May 22, when our president called upon young and old alike to cultivate the soil of the land, Mrs. Riter decided to plant his garden on the twelfth floor. Boxes were built and painted Italian green, rich earth was hauled from the country and brought to the city, seed was planted on May 27, and one month later onions, radishes and lettuce were being used on his table.

"This duplex apartment with its several rooms on the twelfth floor, also has three rooms built in bungalow fashion above the roof. The parapet is hedged, vines cover hideous ventilator pipes and on top of them perch yellow bird houses. The walls of the house and garden bench are stencilled with tall hollyhocks and a lattice. English ivy grows on the brick chimneys, old fashioned flowers bloom in the center plots, while a blazing bell reflects green corn, cabbage and beans. In each vegetable box is planted, among other growing things, the flag of one of the allies and old glory waves from a tall flagpole, with a search light playing upon it at night. There are soldier and sailor weather-vanes, many colored bird sticks and a scare crow in the green corn.

"No farm yard would be considered complete without its well, and one with a thatched roof was built to conceal the phonograph. There is the usual garden gate, upon which is a bronze eagle, holding in its beak a bell; and on the large chimney-tower over all, is a shield upon which is an excerpt from the president's message asking all patriotic Americans to turn in hosts to the farm and make certain that no pains and labor are lacking in this great matter.

The east front of the roof is the formal garden, or front yard under ray awnings. Here there are flower beds, trees in stone jars, wrought-iron lamps and an electric fountain flashing red, white and blue lights, all overlooking a marvelous view of the magical city. One amusing thing about the garden is that the water tanks above the neighboring apartments are, to all appearances only silos on other farms.

A few of the quotations printed on the vegetable boxes are words of Mrs. Hughes and follow:

"That time has come," the president said, "to talk of many things—of loans, and ships and income tax of cabbage and kinks."

"Lettuce by merry while we may," "Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these—it might have been."

"Gather ye radishes while ye may, Old time is still a flying." On the corn box: "Friends, Allies, Countrymen, lend me your ears. I come to bury seeds, not to raise them."

Alas, poor (parrot) knew him well a fellow of infinite jest and most excellent fancy.

And last but not least from Ophelia:

"Here are onions they're for remembrance."

Count the day lost whose low descending sun, finds you without some worthy sprout begun.

"This unique and enjoyable experiment has proven conclusively what may be done with the lines of roof as well as food, observation in the cities."

CAN'T RETAIN PREMIUMS AND VOID LIABILITY

Supreme Court Administrators Re-buke to Fire Insurance Company in Ruling

OPINION EXPECTED TO STOP OVER-INSURANCE

A fire insurance company which remains upon a doubly insured risk, after it has knowledge of such double insurance, and retains all premiums paid in on this risk, cannot avoid liability for loss upon its policy because the latter contained a clause to the effect that such policy, unless otherwise provided by agreement endorsed thereon, should be void if the insured should thereafter procure any other contract of insurance, rules the North Dakota supreme court in affirming a judgment of the district court of Morton county, awarding George Yuskko a verdict for $1,000 and costs to the amount of $24.11 against the Midwest Fire Insurance Co. of Valley City.

The ruling is one of wide importance to the fire insurance business, as establishing a precedent which is expected to result in more care upon the part of companies writing fire insurance in this state, and which it is hoped will aid in doing away with the practice of over-insurance, which is said to have been common in North Dakota.

History of Case.

In 1912 Yuskko procured from the Midwest Insurance Co. a policy protecting him to the extent of $1,750 from loss on barn, livestock and grain contained therein. In 1913 the barn was wholly destroyed by lightning and the resultant fire. Yuskko claimed loss to the extent of $2,000; proof of loss and claim for payment were filed with the insurance company, which declined to settle on several grounds, the most important of which was that prior to the fire, the plaintiff had procured from the Northwestern Fire & Marine Insurance Co. of Minneapolis another policy covering the same barn, all without the knowledge and consent of the defendant. The company further claimed fraud and perjury on the part of Yuskko in a sworn statement of loss alleged to have been furnished by him, and in which he was claimed to have held that the total amount of insurance at the time of the loss was represented by the Midwest policy. Yuskko brought suit in Morton county, and a jury sitting before Judge J. M. Hanley returned a verdict for the full amount of his claim against the Midwest company, with costs, making a total of $1,244.11. The insurance company then appealed to the supreme court.

GERMANY OF ART LOST IN BRUTAL MACHINE

Lincoln and Jefferson, Americans only for America! All others should be deported. Should France, England and Russia fall, then Yankee Doodle will go it alone until Germany is wiped in the dust and compelled to indemnify the debauched world to the last cent.

Bishop Cooke has two sons fighting under the Stars and Stripes for democracy. He spoke with unusual vigor, and his address was received with marked enthusiasm by the 300 delegates gathered here for the thirty-second annual meeting of North Dakota Methodists.

Review of Session.

The thirty-second session of the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church met at Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 10. Bishop R. J. Cooke, D. D., presiding.

Pastor Henry H. Frost of Fargo preached the conference sermon from John 10:10.

The bishop, assisted by the district superintendents, administered the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

A. W. Brown, secretary of the last conference, called the roll, after which the following officers were elected: Secretary A. W. Brown was re-elected and nominated his assistants, F. L. Watkins, F. S. Hallett, S. F. Halyard, Ira E. Hammer, H. P. Cooper and G. W. Cooper, and they were confirmed by the conference.

Statistical Secretary Edwin Burling was re-elected and nominated his assistants as follows: Grand Forks district, George Martin, W. E. Vater, W. L. Bennett; Bismarck district, J. H. Brown, F. W. Hedtke, W. R. Thatcher; Fargo district, T. J. Chapman, L. E. Watson, Victor Phillips; Minot district, Fred James, C. A. Armstrong, T. S. Brown and J. Morange; Treasurer, H. H. Moore, who nominated his assistants, all of whom were confirmed.

Thanks to Boothby.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended by Rev. F. F. Boothby for seven years of faithful service as treasurer of the conference. A large number of committees were appointed and Rev. G. H. Quigley announced the standing committees, all of whom were confirmed. New men were received by transfer into the conference. Cecil Westley Clifford from the West Wisconsin conference, Theodore Sharpe from the Puget Sound conference and Clem Davis from the Iowa conference: Thomas H. Gallagher from the Upper Iowa conference, Henry Hume from the northern Minnesota conference, S. M. Swaney from the Iowa conference, M. G. McIntosh, Detroit.

Rev. James Anderson, district superintendent of the Fargo district, gave his report, which showed great material advance and religious progress on the district.

Rev. G. H. Quigley, superintendent of the Grand Forks district, and Rev. James I. Asher, superintendent of the Minot district, each gave their reports, after which the preachers on these districts reported the state of their charges.

A statistical session was called in the afternoon, which dealt with matters pertaining to the pastoral reports. In the evening a special session was ordered to ordain Herbert G. Marley, an elder under the missionary rule. Bishop Cooke was appointed chaplain of the North Dakota Second regiment of the United States army by Gov. Frazier. Bishop Cooke at this session gave a stirring patriotic address and a solemn charge to the newly appointed chaplain ordained to the ministry.

Retirement of Pastors.

Bishop R. J. Cooke conducted some very inspiring and impressive devotional services each morning before the business session. On Thursday the Rev. J. G. Moore, district superintendent of the Bismarck district gave his report and intimated that owing to ill health he would be compelled to be relieved of the superintendency and take a period for recuperation.

Rev. W. R. Morrison and J. W. Danford retired and were granted the superannuation relation. Rev. Morrison is one of the oldest preachers in the North Dakota conference. G. W. Cooper was elected conference reporter.

Rev. Samuel Newlove and John G. Dingle, pastors in the conference died during the year a message of condolence was sent to Mrs. Newlove. Mrs. J. G. Dingle and Mrs. Jack Sherman also words of sympathy and greeting to Rev. C. M. Macanua.

Fraternal Greetings.

Friday, fraternal greetings were sent to the Synod of the Presbyterian church and the convention of the North Dakota Baptist association now in session at Devils Lake and Jamestown respectively.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, the secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, was introduced to the conference and spoke upon the work of the board. He called attention to some remarkable facts. The board had moved its central offices to Washington, D. C. Five things were demanded of the congress at Washington and although these were perfectly breath-taking propositions within eight weeks every one of these measures were enacted into law.

First—A bone dry prohibition law for Alaska.

Second—Dry District of Columbia and capitol city.

Third—The anti-liquor Adv. bill.

Fourth—Stopping the liquor traffic and using the interstate commerce to break down the laws of dry states.

Fifth—Submission of bone dry prohibition for Porto Rico which was later carried by a majority vote of 35,000.

Every one of these went into effect within eight weeks from the time these demands were first announced passing both houses and signed by President Woodrow Wilson.

After dealing with the conference relations of the various students and the report of the examining board the class for ordination was called and the bishop addressed them and propounded the usual disciplinary questions. Mrs. Miller a representative of the Woman's Home Missionary society was introduced to the conference and in the afternoon gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on the work that the society is doing particularly in the United States.

Dr. G. W. Ridous was granted a few minutes to represent the Taylor University of Upland, Ind.

To Remove Rust Stains.

To remove rust stains from any fabric take the juice of a lemon and some salt and mix together. Rub it well into the material and then hang in the sun to dry. Repeat the second time if the first doesn't bring all the stain out. The second time the stain will all be removed.

PIONEER FAMILY GOES Mrs. A. H. Noltmer and Daughter to Minnesota

Churches Ferry, N. D., Oct. 13.—In order that she might be near her mother, who is 92 years old, Mrs. A. H. Noltmer, one of the oldest and best known residents of this district, and her daughter Ruth, have gone to Hutchinson, Minn., to make their home. The Noltmers were early Churches Ferry settlers and long have been prominent in the progress of the community.

Hartford Convention.

The Hartford convention was a convention of delegates from the states of Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Vermont, held at Hartford, Conn., December 15, 1814. It became odious because its proceedings were carried on in secret, thereby giving color to the charge that some of them were treasonable and because it adopted resolutions protesting against the war with England.

Linen Industry in Egypt.

Egypt was the center of the linen manufacture of antiquity. The first mention to this fabric in the Bible is when Joseph, promoted to the dignity of ruler of the land of Egypt, was arrayed in vestures of fine linen.

Look Who's To Sit (?) at Peace Table

People's Council Holding Referendum—Men Who Took Riga's Running Strong

Look who's going to represent the United States when the warring nations gather around the big table to agree on terms of peace. The People's Peace council of America, as already announced, is taking a referendum vote to pick five names, which will be sent to President Wilson for appointment as American peace conference delegates. The pacifist organization in its latest press bulletin from New York tells how the vote is going.

Scott Nearing is handling the referendum, and, strange to say, he and some of his fellow pacifists are away up in the voting. Here are some of the men who have polled heavy votes in the referendum as nominees for official United States peace delegates: Morris Hillquit, socialist candidate for mayor of New York; Senator Robert M. La Follette; James H. Maurer of Pennsylvania, who was to have presided at the People's council meeting here; Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee, whose paper has just been suppressed; Allan L. Benson, late socialist candidate for president; Eugene V. Debs, Scott Nearing, Max Eastman, another suppressed editor; Louis F. Lochner, People's council secretary; David Starr Jordan, its former president; William Randolph Hearst, Seymour Steadman, Chicago attorney who is defending draft evaders; Meyer London of New York, the lone socialist in congress; Congressman William E. Mason of Illinois; John D. Works, former California senator and People's council leader; Senator A. J. Gronna, North Dakota; Professor J. McKean Cattell, just dropped from the Columbia university faculty for his attitude towards patriotism, and Senator William J. Stone of Missouri.

The three men who "took Riga," according to Charles Edward Russell, all seem to be in the running. The press bulletin does not say whether any of its referendum votes are coming from Germany. So far, it says, they are mostly in New York city.

The Return.

A young recruit was on sentry near a home depot one dark night when he observed a shadowy form approaching. He immediately gave the challenge, "Halt! Who goes there?" Out of the darkness came the hoarse whisper of one of his comrades, "Shut up! I ain't going; I'm coming back!"
